

Philip Savage: The Last of the Hyperboreans

Philip Savage's practice of this world's most advanced scientific-spiritual tradition comes directly from his original Hyperborean ancestors of the North Pole (Greenland) who, after the last European Ice Age, re-peopled Asia, Europe and the Americas with diaspora descendants and brought the highest teachings that today we revere in the Vedas (in Asia), the Wisdom Traditions (in Americas), and the Carnac sites (in Celtic Brittany and the Pharaoh's Egypt).

Dr. Savage is the last living direct representative in that line of ancient Holy People, whom history calls (in Celtic Europe) the Druids, (in Asia) the Rishis, and (in the Americas) the Shamans, "scientist-saints" who, in fact, called themselves Keldanes (servants of the Divine), and who have the power to help us in the most extreme crises.

Those highest holy, fully-developed, ancient beings were renowned for many things (e.g. math, science, justice, law, architecture), but probably most appreciated by the people for their healing powers, in particular those sacred powers passed down personally and achronomatically (word from the mouth of one to the ear of the other) through the generations by the female order of the lineage.

Born Philippe Sauvage to that female lineage in 1953 in Brittany (France), the only male child in that last surviving female order, Philip signaled the end of that ancient tradition (as well as all divisive world traditions), the beginning of the long-anticipated great shift this Earth and its inhabitants shall go through in its next huge period of bio-cleansing (Bio-Catharsis), and the prophesied hope of Enlightened Unity for all our future. Recognized by his great-grandmother as this special "Shiftmaster" (Strobinneller), Philip was initiated into both the female and male orders, receiving a level of powers and wisdom never before attained in this world, coming as they are from a significantly higher dimension.

It is these extraordinary powers and abilities that scientist Dr. Philip Savage is able to offer to qualified clients and students, especially those suffering or dying from their own particular health crisis" those people who are right now praying for a "miracle" for themselves, their family, their Earth.

The non-profit corporation, Catharsis: Biognostic Unit of Geonoetics, was organized in 1999 in California by a group of doctors and professionals inspired by that extraordinary life and unprecedented work of Dr. Philip Savage.
